

Citrus County School District Computer Use Agreement for Students

1. Ownership. Student Computers and associated peripherals are the property of the Citrus County School Board and are only to be used by students enrolled in day and/or evening programs. Non enrolled students are prohibited from using CCSB equipment.

2. Use. Computers and installed software are intended for CCSB-class related purposes only.

3. Personal Use. Computers shall not be used for personal use or financial gain, for the benefit of private, “for profit” or “not for profit” organizations, or for any commercial or illegal activity.

4. Security. Students are not allowed to use staff computers. Never leave out or give out passwords.

5. Loss or Damage. The student is responsible for their assigned computer/s and all due care must be taken to minimize the potential for loss or damage. In the event of negligent loss or damage the student may be financially responsible.

6. Installation of Software. In accordance with district policy, students will not place any software on the district-provided computer without permission from the designated technology contact at the school or cost center. The student will honor all licenses, copyrights, patents, restrictions and terms and conditions associated with computer software (e.g. no illegally duplicated software).

7. Anti-Virus Protection. The student shall not prevent or circumvent anti-virus software on the computer, and keep the program files as up to date and current as possible (do not close down scheduled scans) for maximum protection against viruses. Students are required to notify their instructor of any suspicious or harmful activity.

8. Student Data. Students are not allowed to store data on their assigned computers with out the permission of the instructor.

9. Network Use. Students are not allowed to connect their personal devices (PC’s, laptops, PDA’s, etc.) to the district network via wireless or cable. Students are not allowed to disconnect district computers from network via wireless or cable. Streaming of music and or video for personal pleasure is not permitted. Any student who was employed by CCSB shall not be permitted to use or pass out information that is only intended for use by presently employed staff of CCSB.

10. Consequences. Minor violations may result in a warning and conference and more serious violations may result in removal from the program enrolled with no refund.
